

Cleethorpes Athletic Club, Facebook Terms of use

1 Introduction

Facebook is a useful way for keeping in touch with friends, family and club members, and is also a great way to exchange information, however club members and users of the Club's Facebook site are reminded that what they post must not bring Cleethorpes Athletic Club into disrepute or cause any distress to any other user

2 Rules

Whilst there is no intention to restrict any proper and sensible exercise of the individual's rights and freedoms, it is expected that all Club members and users of the Club's Facebook Site will adhere to the following:

1. Refrain from publishing negative comments about
 - Cleethorpes Athletics club
 - other local running clubs
 - other runners
2. Not comment on controversial or potentially inflammatory subjects
3. Post hostile, harassing or discriminatory comments
4. Avoid communication which is overtly sexual in tone
5. Never use offensive language

Club members and users of the Club's Facebook site while always following the rules above should also be mindful of the following which in some cases may also breach the terms of use of the Club's Facebook Site.

- 1) Promotion of another local club to the detriment of Cleethorpes Athletics Club
- 2) Off topic conversations
- 3) Excessive promotion of commercial ventures not associated with Cleethorpes Athletics Club, its sponsors or athletics in general
- 4) Comments which are misleading or incorrect

3 Procedure

Any post or comment on the Club's Facebook site reported to have breached the above will be removed by an administrator, the member or user will be informed of this and the reason for its removal.

Members and users who post serious or repeated breaches of these rules will have their access to the club's Facebook site suspended until the Club committee can review the breach.

For club members this may result in disciplinary action.
